

Proposal #1: Stage book

Meant to resemble both a book and an arched stage. Simple and geometric, probably the most modernist of all the logos.

Smith and Kraus

Where Life Meets Theater

Home Books Plays Monologues Authors Playwrights Productions Licencing Contact

From the Publisher, Marisa Smith

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Suspendisse vel consectetur lacus. Curabitur sit amet enim diam, sed rhoncus mi. Cras non sagittis mi. Nullam consequat tempus ipsum vel eleifend. Aliquam erat volutpat. Vestibulum ante ipsum primis in faucibus orci luctus et ultrices posuere cubilia Curae. Nulla dignissim justo a nunc lobortis aliquam.

Email Newsletter

Proposal #2: Garnish

Reminiscent of showbiz, very textured and bright.

S&K
Smith and Kraus

Smith and Kraus

Where Life Meets Theater

Home Books Plays Monologues Authors Playwrights Productions Licencing Contact

From the Publisher, Marisa Smith

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Suspendisse vel consectetur lacus. Curabitur sit amet enim diam, sed rhoncus mi. Cras non sagittis mi. Nullam consequat tempus ipsum vel eleifend. Aliquam erat volutpat. Vestibulum ante ipsum primis in faucibus orci luctus et ultrices posuere cubilia

Email Newsletter

Proposal #3: Curtains

Much more graphical than the other two, although not quite as far along in the process

Additional Proposal Sketches

